Failure to Make Notable Progress in East May Bring Japanese Troops Into European Theater of War.

LONDON, Oct. 15,-"What's the matter with Russia?" and will Japanese troops be brought from Asia to fight the Germans?" are two questions that are heard wherever military experts foregather in London. No secret is made of the fact that the Russian army has thus far proved a disappointment.

At the outset of the war, when Gen, von Kluck was making his rapid sweep toward Paris, the eyes of England were turned toward the near east, where Gen. Rennenkampf, and his dashing cavalry were making their raid on East Prussia. But Rennenkampf was forced to retire. Then the Russians under Gen. Buzsky struck Galicia, and advanced mile after mile into Austrian territory. It looked as if the Russians would sweep on, take Cracow and soon be before Berlin. New Situation Arises.

Now, however, a different situation has developed. The Germans moving steadily forward into Russian Poland, have reached the Vistula river and are before the Russian fortresses. The Russian offensive has apparently turned into a defensive. The Austrians claim to have driven the Russians in Gallela back to the San river, to have lifted the siege of Przemysl, and to have retaken Lemberg. These claims may be overdrawn but they probably have some basis of truth.

If the German war machine smashes the Russian army, it may be regarded as very likely that Japanese troops will be taken through Manchuria, Siberia and Russia, and launched against the kaiser's troops. Japan has announced that it will confine its attack on Germany to the far east but it is evident that Russia and Japan are working to a close understanding.

The Petrograd correspondent of the London Times states that after being received in audience by Emperor Nicholas, the Japanese military attache with the Russian army, Gen. Obs, gave a statement to the Bourse Gazette in which he expressed the hope that the Russo-Japanese entente could become a formal alliance. This he declared would be pleasing to the Japanese government and people.

Treaty is Being Negotiated. There is no doubt that such a treaty is being negotiated. Japan declared war on Germany because of such a treaty with England. A similar pact with Russia would make it almost certain that Japanese troops would assist the Russians if they were called upon. That such a step has ever been contemplated will shortly be officially denied but the military experts will accept the denials with the same reserve with which they receive official announcements made at certain cap-

MAY BE JOKE ON HARVARD

Captain in Europe Offers Ten Million University.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15 .--Whether Harvard university is the victim of the biggest hoax of the European war or is showing more financial adroitness is the question that is puzzling J. L. Ketterlinus, wealthy uncle of Capt, Clarence Weiner. The latter, veteran of the South African war, and now commanding a brigade of British artillery in France, is reported to have offered to bequeath Harvard $10,060,000 on condition Prof. Hugo Munsterberg be "fired" from the faculty for "unwarranted pro-German utterances."

Ketterlinus, head of a large photographic concern here, was surprised when he learned Thursday of his

"That's just like Clarence," said Ketterlinus, "But I am not sure whether he has the $10,000,000 to leave Harvard. If he is basing the bequest on a prospective inheritance from me Harvard will be disappointed. I haven't $16,000,000 to leave anybody. Clarence has made some money. But he has had several ups and downs. I could not swear that he had more than two cents.'

DISCOVER POST TOMB IS GUARDED BY ARMS

BATTLE CREEK, Oct. 15 .- It has just become known here that the tomb of the late Charles W. Post, mil-Honaire manufacturer, has been guarded by armed men since the day of interment, May 15.

The body lies in Oak Hill abbey, a public mausoleum at Oak Hill cemetery, it being the intention of the relatives to build a private mausoleum the coming summer. When Mr. Post was interred the tomb was locked and the key placed in the Postumville safety deposit vault. Then three older employes were assigned to guard duty, working in shifts, each guard telephoning the po-Hee department every half hour. Owing to the close association with Mr. Post in life, the three employes kept the plan secret. Whether the family feared "grave robbers" or merely established the MRS. CARMAN TO TESTIFY RAILROADS LOOK FOR guard for sentimental reasons is unknown. C. L. Post, brother; Mrs. Leila Post, widow, and Mrs. Marjorie Close, Will Tell Her Story on Stand Probdaughter of the late manufacturer, are not in the city to explain, all having gone to Texas.
